

Encounter the King

Resource Guide: Scripture Search

The set-up for this game is similar to a sword drill. Divide the class into two teams. Say, 'Raise your Bibles.' Then say the reference (e.g., Revelation 15:3). Have the children repeat the reference after you. Then say, 'Go!' The children simultaneously search for the verse. The first child who stands up and begins reading the verse gets a point for his or her team. After the verse has been read, choose a child who sat quietly and listened to the verse and ask him or her, 'What did God reveal about himself in that verse?' If the child answers correctly they get a point for their team. (Try to evenly alternate between the teams when asking this question.) This encourages the children to listen and to look for the King.
